LUXURY LIVING ON WHEELS.

Taking Motor Coach Interior Design to a Whole New Level

Sherri Goode, Goode Interiors

Sherri Goode's clients wish was to turn this 2009 Silver Crown Coach that was built on a Freightliner, Columbia truck chassis (45') interior into a contemporary, but comfortable setting! Initially, this coach was designed and specified in a more country style, which ultimately lead to a dark, heavy feel. Mission accomplished! Hence, within 2 weeks the interior was transformed.

The original floors were set in granite with black absolute inserts. The cabinetry is custom made in cherry wood. To create detail to the cherry cabinets, decorative, crystal hardware by Carpe Diem was installed.

The ceiling vent covers were custom made in hard maple with a lattice design and stained to match the existing cherry. The goal was created by using multiple textures and earth tone colors. Glass mosaics tiles were installed as wainscotting. Goode's client had one request, which was to lighten up the interior. Keeping within the guidelines, warmth and comfort was accomplished by using the monochromatic hues with a splash of color.

The first phase began with the demolition process, an important beginning to establish a clean palate. With careful coordination, one by one the crew began to install glass mosaic tiles in the coordinating areas. White onyx was installed on the kitchen counter tops, nightstands, master suite, bath and dining table. Gold faux alligator velvet accented the window boxes which framed out the motorized shades. This backdrop was paramount and key to lighten up the original dark interior. New LED strip lighting was installed throughout. The final phase was to bring in the custom Burma gold leather sofa and reclining chair. The contemporary dining chairs were a nice contrast against the white onyx table. Custom bedding in the copper/bronze tones and texture created a soft, romantic feel. To tie the interior together, the metal art work was installed. This "2009 Silver Crown Coach" is a dream come true for her clients. A true Luxury on Wheels! The attention to detail yielded a space that emits warmth, Elegance and luxury while lightening up the space.

The clients can be described as down-to-earth people, warm and unpretentious in nature. A true class act!

LUXURY AT SEA ON THE AVENTURA

DESIGNER Gladys Landa, Innovative Interiors, Inc.,
Fort Lauderdale, FL 954-768-1901
EXTERIOR PHOTOGRAPHY JD Freedman
BUILDER Joe Johnson and his team of Real Ships, inc.

Aventura is a 77 Ft. Custom Built Real Ships Trawler. The Owners, Chuck and Jaina Johnson wanted a classic, traditional, elegant and warm interior. As they both said, we want the interior to be inviting. When she was displayed at the Ft. Laud. Boat Show, we should have installed a revolving door because of the traffic she attracted. Her interior was designed and decorated by Innovative Interiors, Inc.

The Aventura's interior was designed and decorated by Innovative Interiors, Inc. She has a custom built leather sofa with stowage. The leather is from Spinneybeck and the side chair is from Judith Norman with ebony wood exposed. The dining table was from Dinettes by Design, which we spiced up by adding some gold gilding. The salon sole is solid teak and holly. She has an entertainment center, bar, red wine storage and wine cooler. The window treatments are all silk Roman shades design and manufactured by Innovative Interiors' own workroom. The overhead is all solid wood painted white to achieve an old world style.

AVENTURA'S BRIDGE DECK IS LARGE AND HAS ALL AMENITIES INCLUDING EXOTIC VIEWS AND SUNSETS.

Aventura's Bridge Deck is large and has all amenities including exotic views and sunsets. The teak dining table was made by Murray Products and comes with matching folding teak chairs. The fittings are chromed brass for durability. The cushions were made of perennial indoor/outdoor fabrics. The bridge deck is also equipped with a built-in BBQ and a small adjacent sink. It is decorated with a granite top and yellow and blue Mexican tiles, which match the seat cushions.

The master stateroom is midship, and is the most stable area in a vessel. The queen berth comes with a custom Tempur-pedic mattress. Her linens are from Signoria all Egyptian cotton 750 TC customized by Innovative Interiors' workroom. The bedspread and shams are silk from various fabric mills. The headboard is made with a box tufted design in leather from Edelman Leather, named Buffalo parchment. The wallcoverings are a commercial all vinyl faux silk look from Eykon. We chose this type of material for the look and wearability. The carpet is wool and all the door knobs were custom designed by Innovative Interiors in a diamond cut shape using solid satin finished nickel. The master head features a marble countertop with all satin nickel fixtures and porcelain sink. The shower/sauna features a seamless glass door, and the flooring is made of all marble tiles from Walker Zanger.

Our goal was to create a homey atmosphere at sea, and to bring in all the conveniences with a touch of elegance. We accomplished that goal.

MINIMALIST IMPACT.

INTERIOR DESIGNER Toby Zack
Fort Lauderdale, FL 954-967-8629
PHOTOGRAPHY Joe Lapeyra,
Fort Lauderdale, FL

Searching for a new home can often be an overwhelming task, especially when trying to decide between two houses. That was the situation for the owners found themselves in when they called longtime friend and designer Toby Zack for some expert advice. Having worked with Zack before on another home in Weston, the clients knew she would help them make the right decision.

“We visited both homes and when I saw the second one, I said, ‘This is the one.’ I just flipped over it,” Zack says. The home possesses the uncluttered lines and easy angles that Zack loves to work with to create an environment that flows. “I love clean and simple,” she says.

Zack selected furniture that would complement the scale of the rooms as well as the streamlined architecture. “Some many think that this was the biggest challenge, but for me it was the best part,” Zack says. “I love these rooms; they are a beautiful size.

Because the floor plan flows from room to room, it called for a consistent style- one that would unify the look of the entire home. To visually separate rooms and offer additional privacy, Zack incorporated strategically placed accessories, such as the black leather-and-wood screen that sets apart the living room from the family room in the rear of the house.

Zack's theory that "every project starts with a box and layers are added from there" is illustrated by her choice of furnishings. From The Toby Collection, the white cotton sofa and leather club chairs comprise the main seating in the living room. Punctuating the pure white scheme are pieces in the living room. Accenting the pure white scheme are pieces made of wenge wood, such as the cocktail table, occasional tables and a trio of Asian-inspired stools.

In keeping with the interior's pared-down motif, the dining room presents a select, yet striking mix of furniture. When entertaining large groups, the owners pull out the second table that doubles as a buffet when not in use. When open, the table can accommodate additional 10 to 12 settings. "It can be wheeled to any area, lift up the sides and everyone has a place to dine," Zack says.

Zack's theory that "every project starts with a box and layers are added from there"

The owners are quick to admit, however, that the kitchen is their favorite room in the home. “We love to cook.” And the stainless-steel appliances make their avocation more efficient and enjoyable. Black-brown limestone countertops offer a rich contrast to the light, pear-wood cabinetry. In the breakfast area, black leather armchairs encircle a stainless-steel table with a cylindrical base.

Zack’s minimal approach continues in the master bedroom with an upholstered bed dressed in shimmering silver cotton and a sleek bench covered in cocoa-colored fabric, which rests at the foot of the bed.

“Some may think that minimal means cold, but that’s where the combination of textures comes in keep the look and feel warm,” she explains.

In the master bath, a wall of windows affords a view of atrium while soaking in the bath. A rimless glass shower with stainless-steel accents furthers the open feel of the space. “A clean palette lets the simple shapes become sculptures of their own,” Zack says.

The kronen’s feelings about their home are as uncomplicated as Zack’s approach to its design. “I really feel like this home is very us,” Michel says. Understated and straightforward, the residence makes a bold statement without saying a word.

STYLINE FURNITURE EXPANDS INTO LARGER SHOWROOM

In 1992, Styline Furniture was formed by Jeffrey Wasserman, then owner of the Office Furniture Store, a high end showroom selling fine quality designed office furniture. It was located only seven blocks North of where Styline would eventually be located. Having grown up in the contract furniture industry and demonstrating a flair for good contemporary design, Jeff decided to enter the home furniture industry. When a large showroom space in downtown Fort Lauderdale became available, he leased it and started Styline Furniture. One of Jeff's hobbies was collecting unique contemporary designed furniture, and with his many industry contacts, he was able to fill the 10,000 square foot showroom with the latest designs in furniture, lighting, and accessories.

Jeff's business model was and always has been to provide high quality contemporary furniture at a fair price. After 16 years at the Federal Highway location, Jeff decided to move the showroom to a bigger and more mainstream location. Styline is now located directly on I-95, in Dania Beach (1941 Tigertail Blvd., Dania Beach, Florida).

Styline's new showroom has grown to 15,000 sq. ft. and features the best selection of contemporary furniture, lighting, and accessories, Styline has also added a full interior design department that is capable of creating total environments for the home, office, hospitality industry and all contract areas.

Styline proudly showcases manufacturers such as American Leather, Creative Elegance, Elite, Calligaris, Della Robbia, Marquis Collection of Beverly Hills, Oggetti, Constantini, Idealsedia, and more. Jeff plans to expand Styline's benchmark manufacturer American Leather into the largest gallery in Florida.

Styline delivers not only within the U.S., but worldwide. Special orders are the specialty of the well informed sales staff. They are open 7 days a week and evenings by appointment. In addition, Styline offers a wholesale program to qualified designers, architects, and builders.

If you are looking for fine, contemporary furniture, pay Styline a visit. You will not be disappointed. For more information and directions, call Styline at (954) 523-3375. # DESIGNING WITH A EUROPEAN FLAIR. A Neo-Mediterranean Home in Windmill Ranches

INTERIOR DECORATING Goode Interiors
Plantation, FL 954.701.6149
PHOTOGRAPHY Abel Carlo, Deerfield Beach, FL
ARCHITECT Mark Tatis, Design Architect, RAD Inc.

Sherri Goode's goal was to make the interiors of this renovated project into a "Dream Home" for her clients, which they could truly call home for the entire family to share, to be together, and to entertain!

The floors throughout the main areas were installed in the chiseled edged, 5-piece French pattern, crema bella marble, thus giving the home a European feel. The warmth was created carefully by choosing a color palate in the earth tone colors designed specifically to her client's likings .

The pool side view takes the cake. This setting sets the tone of "WOW" where am I? California coast? The cozy, comfortable patio furniture was a custom-made traditional collection, which was upholstered in sunbrella fabric in rust and chocolate colored hues. The sitting area is surrounded with stone columns, a marble outdoor fireplace, and an outdoor kitchen. The lighting also plays an important role to this setting. The Fine Art coach lights and Pacific palisades fans give the feel of being indoors. The view is spectacular! While overlooking the lake, your eyes are drawn to the pool that is covered in blue and white mosaic glass tiles.

“The elegance of this room is created by a custom built entertainment center...”

This great room/formal living room was created for the sole purpose of not wasting any space in the open floor plan. My clients use this room on a daily basis, for entertaining or for casual comfort. The gabled roof line creates more room, giving it an open feel. The large, semi-lunar, leather sofa was custom made with contrasting fabric for the back pillows.

The elegance of this room is created by a custom-built entertainment center in a dark distressed finish mixed with applied panels, giving a unique feel. A coordinated custom built walk-up bar is as unique as it is functional. Slate ledger stone is used for the back splash. The walls are hand painted in an old world plaster technique. The silk, hand washed 10' x 14' rug tied the room together. The copper hued faux silk window treatments created a beautiful backdrop to the outdoors. Decorative in nature, the room allows access through the French doors to the poolside, which overlooks the lake.

The dining room exudes elegance with an old world feel!

The dining room exudes elegance with an old world feel! The over sized Mediterranean-style chandelier coordinates with the iron wall sconces, which consist of hand-made shades with custom-cut crystal pendalogues . The lighting complements the oval, wood planked dining room table and chairs, which are upholstered in a rich leather/fabric combination. A perfect place to dine in comfort. The backdrop of the beaded tassel window treatments and hand- made silk rug tie the room together and creates an opulent feel.

The game room (another cozy get-a-way) is also used as a display for my clients collectables. The custom built-outs were a mirror image of each other on both sides of the pool table. The room was connected by the wainscoting that wrapped the room. The Mediterranean-inspired pool table 3-light pendant with the custom faux leather cornice tied the space together. Once again, giving an old world feel.

A crystal cut chandelier brought in the formality and elegance to the room.

The master suite, traditional in nature, was designed with my clients' color palate in mind. Multiple hues of blues and gold were used for the theme throughout. The striped feature wall was hand painted with a stencil technique and gold metallic paint was applied. This coordinated beautifully with the silk fabrics in the custom bedding. A crystal cut chandelier brought in the formality and elegance to the room. To soften up the space, a silk, hand washed, rug was placed under the bed to create the warmth that the room required.

The master bath, a true space that emits opulence!

The master bath is a space that emits opulence! It is raining Onyx! The Onyx counter tops lined the his-and-her custom cabinets along with the tub deck and walls. Spectacular! The custom Austrian sheers softened up the back drop of the glass window along with the antique gold semi-flush mount chandelier, which was dressed with amber-hued, oversized crystal pendalogs.

The walls were hand painted with gold leaf and antiqued with a dark walnut stain to create a metallic finish. The crema bella marble was installed throughout the bathroom floor and up the shower walls.

The open floor plan in this kitchen is the focal point of the home. From the minute you step foot through the door, the kitchen draws your eyes. This space allows for a flow-through into three spaces: the dining room, family room and main areas. Multi-tasking takes place, ie., such as eating at the island butcher block, wood breakfast table or sitting at the bar. The surrounding areas of the kitchen was painted in a plaster finish technique to define the spaces. The iron chandelier dresses up the multi-level breakfast island. The dark wood cabinets contrasted the marble floors to create a warm feel.

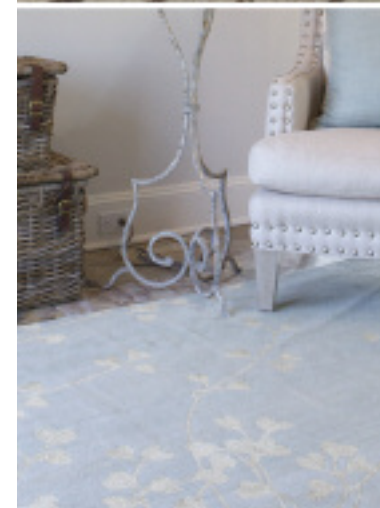

The common theme used throughout the interior was accomplished by using multiple textures and warm tone color hues. Whether it was created in the art or accessories, the elegance of this open floor plan and architecture yielded a space that emits warmth and luxury - features desired by the clients, both of whom can be described as true class acts, warm, classy and unpretentious in nature. A true "down-to-earth" family!
