

COVER STORY...

DESIGN FEATURES A FUSION OF POP ART WITH MICHELANGELO

Home is a canvas for your personal sanctuary for you, family, friends, work and simple reflection. Amid a retro space that's a classic design featuring a fusion of pop art with Michelangelo, Lichi combines architectural elements with touches of color and opulence, which tie into your home with a timeless approach including personal heirlooms and memories. Lichi focuses on designing each home uniquely – one-of-a-kind rather than sticking to a standard style. In her retro-designed home, she adds the original pop art-work over the living room sofa by artist, Adam Lichi.

INTERIOR DESIGNER Perla Lichi Design, Perla Lichi, Pompano Beach
PHOTOGRAPHY Craig Denis Architectural Photography, Miami

-CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE -

Today's kitchen has become the center of the home for culinary delights, family, socializing and even working with your laptop and notepad. "The kitchen has become the heart of the home because it's the first place we gravitate towards when we're entering our home and ultimately where we relax and group our conversations for all types of social and family entertainment," says Perla Lichi, CEO of Perla Lichi Design.

With the recent home-bound lockdown, many of us have found new things we miss and enjoy about our home and things that need to be updated. While many things will forever be changed -- a lot of new lifestyle habits formed for the future of our homes. In today's transition of "being home" as a comfortable experience plus a future path. Renovations of current homes are becoming a large part of today with being at home more frequently today.

More features are required for your kitchen today. This includes counter height seating for 8-10 with a comfortable ambiance including a touch of color with accessories and other items. These items can work fluently into subtle white and grey easy to maintain countertop surfaces and cabinetry. This clean-line approach includes adding a key touch of décor lighting which brings a warm yet designer-friendly ambiance to a space which will be used more now than ever.

With today's new circumstances, many have decided to renovate their homes with new looks. Time spent in homes today and as we move forward will be substantially greater than ever before. Therefore, creating a space with all the important comforts is important. This includes all-new kitchen & bathrooms; overall new look which meets today's tastes; Outdoor escapes such as patio, pool, gazebos and other forms of utilizing the home both indoor-outdoor; creating additional rooms for work-at-home, gym-fitness centers, organization, hobbies and more.

- CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE -

Our bedrooms have also become the center of comfort – with walk-in closets including organizational systems and storage areas, which are easy to locate your ready-to-wear clothing and keepsakes.

Additionally, adding a touch of color from the living spaces into our bedrooms are a great way of tying in the splash for consistency. From the bathroom with a white space and glass shower door to bedroom with glamor, today's home is something we see as our daily space therefore signature timeless classic design with an edge of personality is even more important than ever.

- THE END -

